Admiral and Mrs. Moore Entertain.

Entertaining at the last of the official affairs during Admiral Moore's service in the United States navy, Admiral and Mrs. Moore were host and hostess at a reception on Wednesday afternoon at their quarters at Pearl Harbor. Admiral and Mrs. Moore have been among the most popular of the navy folk who have been in Hawaii and their departure, which will follow closely the arrival of the retired admiral, is greatly to be regretted by their many friends in the islands. However, their absence from Honolulu will be a very short one for they have purchased a home site in Nuuanu valley which they will occupy upon their return.

Flowers in great profusion ornamented the quarters of Admiral and Mrs. Moore on Wednesday and quantities of American Beauty roses, white night blooming cereus, yellow coreopsis and lilies were seen. During the afternoon the Hawaiian band played and as the music floated through the air the guests danced upon the broad lanais.

Receiving with Admiral and Mrs. Moore were Mrs. William H. Carter, Mrs. Kirby Crittenden, Mrs. Trouton, Mrs. Richard Cutts. Those who assisted the hostess during the afternoon were Mrs. Sarah Newcomb, Mrs. Albert Horner, Miss Burroughs, Miss Garrett, Mrs. Seaman and Miss Marjorie Grey.

About 200 guests called during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham's Musical.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham's Japanese garden on the Diamond Head road was the scene of a delightful party on Wednesday evening when the Dillinghams were host and hostess at a musicale in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gaylord. The affair was charming in every respect and as the guests mingled together on the lantern-lighted lawn Signor Gioacchini was heard singing a number of selections from popular operas. During the evening Japanese servants served delightful refreshments à la fresco. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham and Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord and after an informal reception the musical program was opened. Among those who were invited to meet Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Eleanor Hyde-Smith, Maj. and Mrs. Frank Cheatham, Judge and Mrs. Sidney M. Ballou, Mrs. Sara Newcomb, Mr. E. A. P. Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, Mrs. Katherine M. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. W. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Miss Edith Williams, Gen. and Mrs. William H. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott, Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter.

University Club High Jinks.

The new lunal at the University Club, which promises to be the scene of a number of entertainments this summer, was christened last night with a special form of "high jinks." The entertainment was very informal, no programs being in evidence. Baby Alma, the popular little actress, opened the evening's entertainment with a clever song and dance and she was followed by members of the club who amused themselves and everyone else with caricatures of prominent Honoluluans. It was the task of the audience first to guess who was being "taken off" and also the name of the impersonator.

A male quartet sang some of the newest popular airs, many of them with their verses revised to suit the occasion. Then there were jokes and many witty sayings at the expense of some of the club members. The affair was one of the most enjoyable the club has had for many months and it was remarked that "it is a pity there couldn't be a lot of additions made to the University Club, just to make parties like these permissible."

Moonlight Launching Party.

Dr. and Mrs. Scarsier were host and hostess at a delightful party on Monday evening when they entertained their friends on a moonlight launch ride. The launch left the wharf early in the evening and the party spent several enjoyable hours along the coast of Oahu. A picnic supper was served during the evening and a little before midnight the boat returned to the harbor. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Mount, Dr. and Mrs. Whitman, Dr. and Mrs. Matthews, Dr. and Mrs. Ingersoll, Dr. and Mrs. Foucar, Dr. and Mrs. Davis and Dr. and Mrs. Schlanser.

Reception at Kailua.

The Misses Joabe and Bud Carter received their friends informally on Tuesday afternoon at the George R. Carter residence at Kailua. A number of young folks called early in the afternoon and later left for Tantalus where Miss Rosamond Swanzy was hostess at a house-party. Among those who visited Kailua were Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Peggy Carter, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Fannie Schaefer, Miss Ruth Gartley, Miss Eleanor Gartley, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Catherine Jones, Miss Carol Low and others.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Emory have taken the Thurston cottage on Tantalus for the month of July.

San Francisco from Schofield Barracks in the Hawaiian islands, where Capt. Rich is stationed. They are the guests of Mrs. Rich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Luther, at their home on Taylor street.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Miss Fanny Hoogs and her sister, Miss Stella Hoogs, were departing passengers in the Matsonia this week. Miss Stella Hoogs will spend the next four years at Mills College, but Miss Fanny Hoogs will remain in California until the spring when she will return to become the bride of Mr. Frank McKenzie.

Girls in the Academy set will be delighted to learn that Miss Mildred Bon and Miss Barbara Bon, two charming Cheyenne girls and nieces of Mrs. Ed Towse, may return to the islands again this summer. The Bon girls visited here two years ago and were entertained extensively during their stay in the islands. During the past year Miss Barbara Bon has been a student at Notre Dame in Maryland, where she has devoted most of her time to art.

Miss Mildred Brownell, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Ynez Gibson, Miss Gertrude Blake, Miss Charlotte Blake, Miss Clemence Gifford, Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Ruth Farrington, Miss Dorothy Winter and Miss Gladys Halstead, chaperoned by Mrs. Winter, returned from Kailua yesterday morning after having spent a week on the other side of the islands. The young ladies are members of the Lima Bean Club which has planned a number of similar outings for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCandless, who have been guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hepburn of Fairmont avenue, since spring, are planning to return to their home in Honolulu next month. They came to California to be present at the marriage of their son, James McCandless, to Miss Marian Rodolph, an Oakland girl, which took place early this month. They will remain until after the young couple, who are now at Coronado on their honeymoon, return to take possession of a home on Adams point which the latter have leased for the summer.—San Francisco Examiner.

ONE way to reduce the cost of living is to watch the spoonfuls—to learn the many simple ways of kitchen economy.

You have heard a good deal about the discovery of the scientific Crisco Process. Perhaps you have not realized that one of Crisco's most important advantages is economy. Besides being a pure vegetable cooking fat, which produces digestible and delicious foods, Crisco also is a money saver. For the following reasons it is economy to use

CRISCO

For Frying For Shortening For Cake Making

Economy in Frying

Can be used over and over for frying all manner of foods—fish, onions, potatoes. It is not necessary to keep different kettles of fat for different fryings.

In deep frying, Crisco can be heated hotter than lard without smoking. By having Crisco hot enough and by adding a small amount of raw food at a time, there practically will be no absorption. Notice how small an amount has been used.

Economy in Shortening

Crisco is the richest of cooking fats. Less, therefore, need be used. Crisco also is cheaper per net pound than the best quality of lard.

Economy in Cake Making

Crisco cakes are as delicate and rich as butter cakes. Crisco costs less than half as much as butter and less Crisco need be used, because butter is one-fifth water, salt and curd, while Crisco is 100% fat.

Protection for You

The need for a powerful antiseptic, to prevent contagion or relieve infection, is likely to arise at any time, in any family. So-called antiseptic remedies, such as potassium permanganate, sulphate of zinc, bicarbonate of mercury, etc., should not be kept in any home. They are DANGEROUS. Ours is safe.

Tyre's Antiseptic Powder

Is a powerful germicide. It is a perfectly harmless preventive of contagion and infection; instantly relieves and permanently cures irritated conditions of the delicate mucous membrane, and is UNRIVALLED AS A DOCTOR. A little box makes two full-sized antiseptic solutions. Simple and beautiful.
